

DPI Irrigation Scheduler

Contributed by Administrator
Saturday, 29 March 2008
Last Updated Tuesday, 27 January 2009

Irrigation Scheduler is a system designed to provide irrigation information to farmers by different means of communication such as SMS, Email, and Fax. This information will help farmers to use irrigation resources wisely for their financial benefit as well to save water for future needs. This system allows farmer to register for receiving this information and also to view ET (EvapoTranspiration) report for today and previous dates.